Virginia's martial material is still of high order. General C. J. THE POEM, All who heard Captain McCabe's recitation of Captain Hope's poem are showering praises upon him. He brought to his work admiration for the author, a keen appreciation of the verses fine points, and ability to speak them to the hearts of his veteran hearers. Many in the audience were moved to tears. Already Captain Mc-Cabe has been invited by several mili-tary organizations to give public readings of the poem—a recognition of the genius of the dead poet, a well-de-served compliment to McCabe.

THE BACES. It has always been the case that the last day's programme embraced the best races of the Fair, and yesterday was no exception to the rule. The course was in even worse condition than either on Wednesday or Thursday, there being much time is consumed with three races as seven should occupy. A decided reform in this regard is imperative. The people who attend the Fair like to witness the races, and many go especially for this purpose, but they do not want to spend a half day about result of one race where the contest lies between two horses, as was the Fannie Wickham came in first in 3:00, with Huguenot second and Keizletown third. In the second heat Fannie Wickham. who held the pole from the beginning came under the wire ahead, with Kitty Wilkes a close second. Keizletown

ST. JOHN THE WINNER, The second trial, the heats of which were sandwiched with the above race, was running mile heats, two in three with $150 as the purse. For this there were six entries. After several ineffec-tual efforts had been made a beautiful start was gotten, and for the first quarter the horses kept all in a group Here they began to string out and St John took the lead, which he held until he came under the wire, winning the heat in 1:51. PROTESTS, AC. In the third race, which was trotting, 2:40 class, three in five, purse $200, was centered the chief interest of the day. It was conceded that the contest would be chiefly between Tribb, the chestnut gelding, entered by P. T. Gentry, of Richmond, and Kentucky Girl, the bay mare of J. D. Mathews, of Manchester, and on these betting was quite large. The mare was the favorite, and she carried about $1,500. Before the race began Mr. McCance, of Petersburg, the owner of Vivid, en-tered a verbal protest, claiming that the mare had a record of less than '40. Mr. Mathews claimed that the msre's record was 2:431, and Mr. Adams, one of the judges, stated that this was given by race-books as her fastest. Mr. McCance next protested on the ground that the mare's entrance-fee was paid too late, and that for this reason she was not eligible. It appeared that Mr.

Mathews paid his money at Secretary
Venable's effice an hour and a half before the expiration of the time allowed.
This led to much discussion, and it was deciled to let the mare trot under a protest, which the judges would hear at

Secretary Venable's office at 10 A. M. to-day.

Mr. Mathews required that Mr. Mc. Cance should, according to racing rules, put up the $100 forfeit before presenting his written protest, but this he (McCance) did not do.

> The third heat was trotted when one could not see half way around the track well enough to distinguish one horse from the other. All of the horses broke badly and ran except the bay mare, who made but one or two slight skips. Richmond came in first, with Kentucky Girl second. An Artistic Feature. Of all the exhibits of pianos at our State Fair there is a similarity, relieved only by a little extra bunting here and a few banjos and cheap organs there, except in one instance, and that at the exhibit of Messrs. M. B. Ramos & Co. We say emphatically that the great pinno house of Knabe & Co. have sent us the most elegant specimen of artistic piano-work ever seen. The instrument is a rosewood piano inlaid with differ-ent colored woods. The price is $1,500, and the piano will remain on exhibition for a few days. Be sure and see it.

The Premium List of the Fair recognizes the value of many exhibits and given honor where honor is due; but of course it was impossible to satisfy all, and there will be more or ess of heart-burnings, but it is a fact known to this community that that sort of thing can best be cured by the delicious candies, the juicy fruits, and he nice flavored ice-cream which D. clumbus has for sale at his store at the southeast corner of Broad and Third streets. All who took premiums nd all who didn't are invited to call.

Her, Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman; We would by no means re-commend any kind of medicine which we did City Democratic Committee transfers for parties who have requested them.

They will please call and get them today, as this is the last. In a second particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Southing-Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed by fant troubled with colic pains quiet sleep and the parents' unbroken rest at night. Most day, as this is the last day they can res an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button."
